SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

The real name of Ah KONG* is Lieut. General Sin Sian Chow. He was the representative of the late General TAI Li who met and took care of the Free Thai delegation which went to Kunming in 1944. This delegation included Nai Thawin Udon and Nai Manot Vudhadit.

General Sin was born in about 1900, and is now working with WU Te-chen, Foreign Minister in Dr. SUN Fo's cabinet. It was he, in conjunction with Tao Oon and others, who arranged for the sending of Free Laos to Kunming to undergo training in the Nationalist Government Army.

* [REDACTED] Comment. "Ah KONG" is more of a nickname than a pseudonym. It indicates respect, in a manner similar to the Siamese use of the Siamese word for "uncle."
